

April 12, 2020

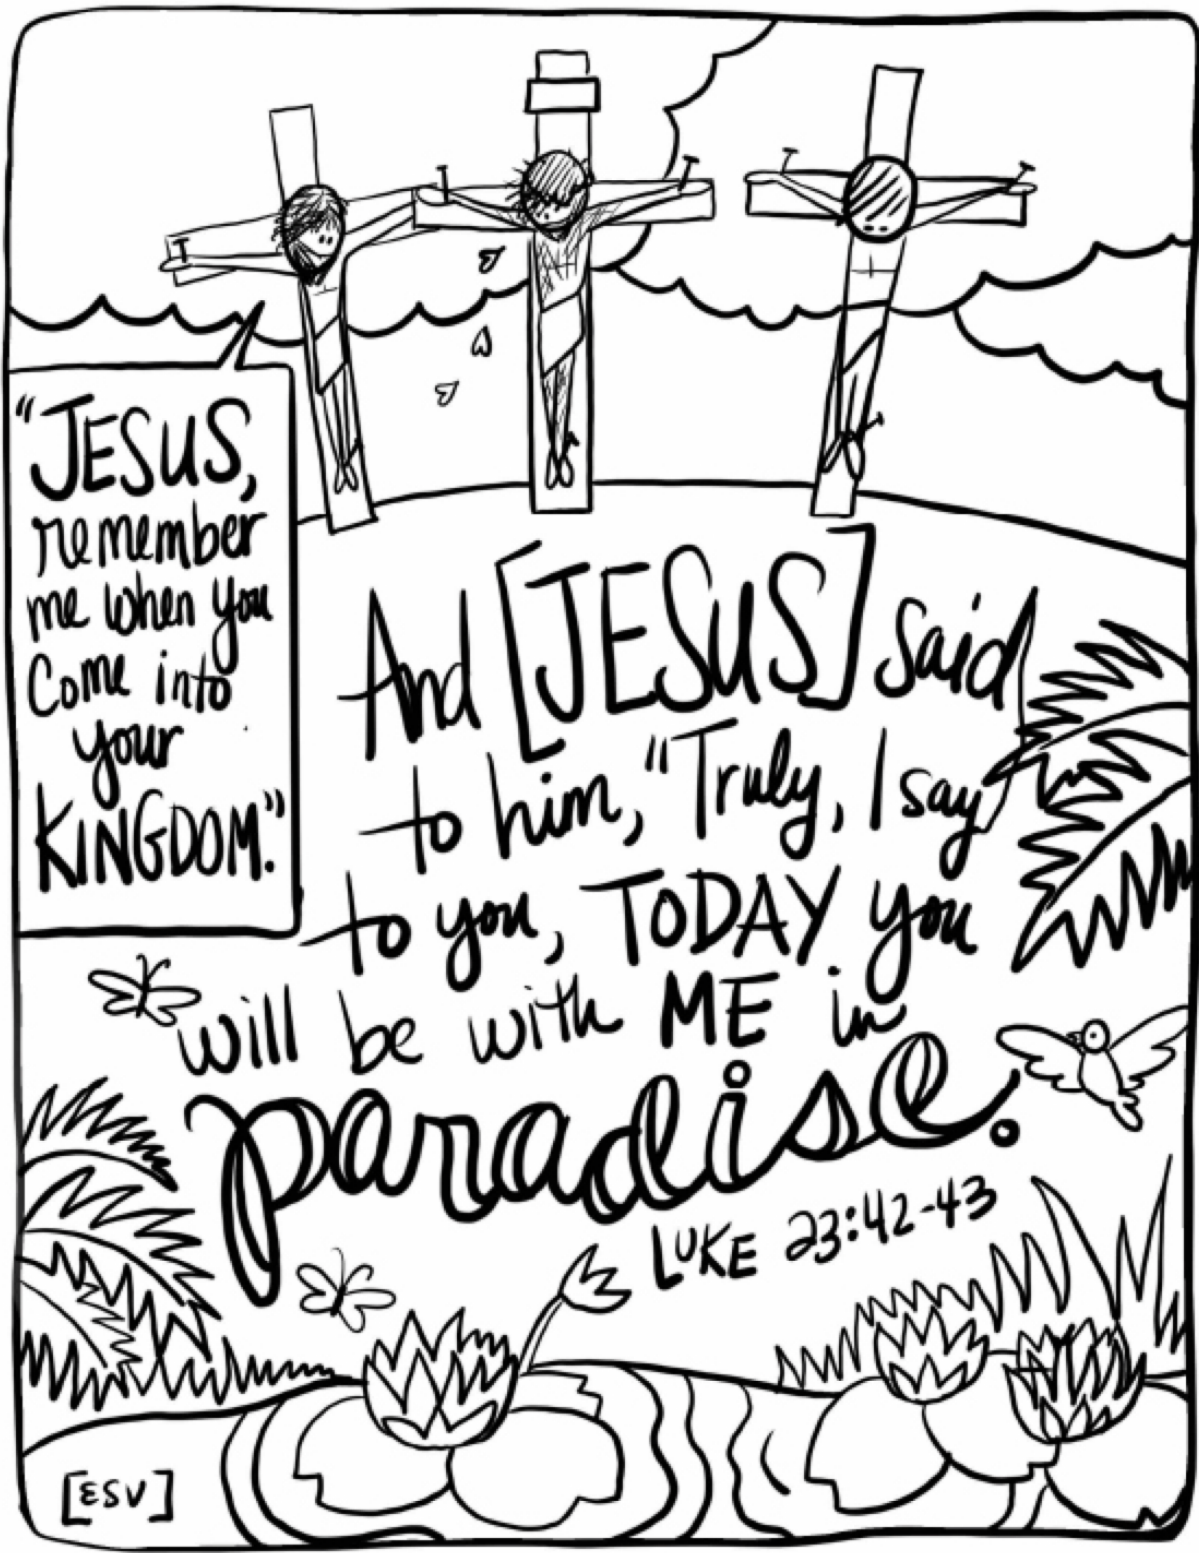

Happy Resurrection Day! This is the perfect time for families to rejoice in His redeeming love. This week's lessons are fun for the whole family. After listening to Pastor Jay's sermon and the worship time from Pastor Eric, use these resources below to help your child(ren) learn at Jesus's resurrection.

This Resurrection Egg Hunt is a meaningful and fun way to help your family focus on the true meaning of Easter! In this blog post, there are 12 scriptures to put in plastic eggs. You can hide them anywhere or use clues to find them in order. There are even suggestions to add to the egg that correspond with the scriptures like pieces of cloth, dice, rock, spices, etc. Doing this activity works the kids' minds and bodies which will help them remember details of the story better.
<https://teachbesideme.com/resurrection-eggs/>

Every week in Children's Church we pray for a different church member. We talk about what the person does for the church, how they are serving God by serving the church, and how they have blessed the church by simply being themselves. This week, let's encourage the kids to pray for Mr. Billy Cox. Let's go one step further! Have your children make a card for Mr. Billy! Knowing someone is praying for you and thinking about you will be a great encouragement to her and serving a member of the church will be a great encouragement to our families too! Let Katie Reine know that you need her address!

Coloring is shown to relax the center of your brain and creates a relaxing state. Print out the Luke 23 color sheet for your child(ren) and even yourself! Coloring together is a perfect opportunity to discuss the importance of Jesus's life, death, and resurrection. After all, everything in the bible whispers His name.

Most importantly, pray together. I can't stress enough how important it is to pray for one another and with one another during this time. Be sure to ask the children if they want to lead prayer time. You may be surprised at what their tender hearts come up with!

"JESUS,
Remember
me when you Come into your KINGDOM."

And [JESUS] said
to him, "Truly, I say to you, TODAY you will be with ME in paradise."

LUKE 23:42-43

[ESV]

JESÚS,
acuérdate
de mi cuando
vengas en
tu
REINO.

Entonces EL le dijo:
En Verdad te digo:
hoy estarás conmigo
en el paraiso.

LUCAS 23: 42-43

[LBLA]